

The Patient and the Practitioner in the Age of Technology:

Promoting Healing Relationships

INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM | OCTOBER 14-16, 2022

Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University, Providence, Rhode Island

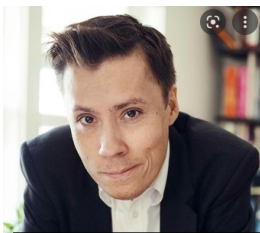

FEATURED SPEAKERS (please see website for a full list of our wonderful faculty!)

Megan Ranney, MD, MPH
Brown University

Marc Ringel, MD
Author, Digital Healing

Jan Grue, PhD
Author, I Live a Life Like Yours,
University of Oslo, Norway

Ricardo Gomes, IDSA
San Francisco State University

Corey Feist, JD, MB
Dr. Lorna Breen
Heroes' Foundation

Christine Sinsky, MD
Internist, VP Professional
Satisfaction, AMA

Kelly Holder, PhD
Brown University

Dror Dofin, MD, MBA
Soroka Med Center
Beersheba, Israel

Dr Julian Brown Dr Clare Hambling
National Health Service Corps, England

Hamish Fraser, MD
Brown University

Dr Christopher Pearce
U of Melbourne, Monash U.
Australia

The Conference Will Focus on the Following Themes:

Relationships Matter More than Ever in Healthcare, and HIT is Changing Them

Addressing Inequity in the Social and Digital Determinants of Health

Designing Human-Centered HIT — for Practitioners and Patients

Improving Clinician Wellbeing Through Systemic Change

Effective HIT Education

Working with Government, Institutions, and Stakeholders to Protect Healing
Relationships and Human Capital

Shared Data: Implications, Ethics, and Stewardship

We gratefully acknowledge the generous support of:

The Paul Levinger Professorship Pro Tem

In the Economics of Health Care

Established in 1987 to honor the memory of Paul Levinger

by a gift from his wife Ruth K. Levinger

FOR THE FULL AGENDA

AND TO REGISTER:

[https://cme-learning.brown.edu/
PromoteHealing](https://cme-learning.brown.edu/PromoteHealing)

Or contact the CME Office:

CME@Brown.edu

401.863.3337

#PatientPractitioner

facebook.com/PatientPractitioner2022

